

API Challenge

1. Very loosely stating that there are more cities trend toward increasing humidity as latitude increases
2. Temperature is highest when latitude is between -20 to 20 and decreases as latitude increases
3. No general trend for wind speed when comparing to latitude; however, there are more outliers with higher wind speeds as latitude increases